

2020

Congratulations to the Zhang Group and our collaborators @ Prof. Xianbin Wang at Western University, and @ Dr. Li at A*STAR, Singapore on the publication of our research work on Wireless Magnetic Field Sensors made of bydrid graphene nanosheets in Nano-Micro Letters (impact factor: 22.8).

Jisu Song successfully defended her thesis. Congratulations Jisu!

Due to COVID-19 constraints, lab usage is currently limited.
Please ensure safety protocols are followed while working in the lab.
