

Here comes the sun

Paul Mayne, Western News
 Harnessing the sun's rays was the name of the game for more than 60 high school students taking part in the S.Y.nergy (Solar Youth Energy) Challenge at Western Tuesday, put on by Western Engineering's Research and External Relations Office. Here, Central Secondary students Spencer Kendall (back left), Kasia Wegrzyn, Melem Samardzic, Linda Zhang (front left), Adriana Pietrzak and Monisha Harricharan look skyward for some assistance in heating their water. Temperatures for some student projects reached as high as 21 degrees.
